QUO VADIS DAYS
Spokane/Yakima

“It is important for the priest, who is called to accompany others through the journey of life up to the threshold of death, to have the right balance of heart and mind, reason and feeling, body and soul, and to be humanly integrated.”

–Pope Benedict XVI
Letter to Seminarians 2010

“A good shepherd, a pastor after God’s heart, is the greatest treasure which the good Lord can grant to a parish, and one of the most precious gifts of divine mercy.” St. John Vianney spoke of the priesthood as if incapable of fathoming the grandeur of the gift and task entrusted to a human creature:

“O, how great is the priest!...If he realized what he is, he would die...God obeys him: he utters a few words and the Lord descends from heaven at his voice, to be contained within a small host...”

- Letter of His Holiness Pope Benedict XVI proclaiming a Year for Priests

Quo Vadis?

Where are you going?

“Quo Vadis” is the Latin phrase for “Where are you going?” Legend tells us that St. Peter asked Jesus this question on the outskirts of Rome. And we know where Jesus went in response to His Father’s will.

Quo Vadis Days is a 4-day camp for young Catholic men ages 13-19 to learn more about the priesthood, to deepen their faith, and to better discern God’s call in their lives.

What is the Father’s will for me? How can I know what God wants?

Quo Vadis Days is a camp experience sponsored by the Dioceses of Spokane and Yakima Vocations Office to provide a time of fun, prayer, and talks to help you explore the Lord’s call in your life.

There will be priests, seminarians, and other young men like you gathered for these days. Our activities will include prayer, swimming, games, talks and discussions.

We hope that you will consider taking time to discern the Lord’s will in your life with us at QV Days. It is a great opportunity to let the Lord speak to you and to spend time listening to Him.

The number of participants is limited, so register soon! Deadline June 27th
